FOREWORD

The materials listed in this bibliography represent the resources available at the PATHWAY Project Resource Center. This bibliography is designed to:

1. Inform and acquaint teachers, administrators and community persons with the curriculum and non-curriculum multi-ethnic books, guides, periodicals, directories and audio-visual materials available for their use at the center.

2. Be utilized as a guide when selecting materials from the center to be used with students in enhancing the overall school curriculum in the area of multi-cultural and intergroup education.

3. Provide the educational personnel of the Baltimore City Public School System, and the community with a comprehensively compiled listing of the PATHWAY Project's resources, that will hopefully encourage continued use of this ethnic depository and resource facility.

It is my sincere hope that in accomplishing these goals, this bibliography will be of great assistance to the Baltimore City Public Schools and the community.

Sincere thanks is expressed to Nancy C. Russell, secretary of the PATHWAY Project, for her continued assistance during the compiling of this bibliography.
